

HE OWES HIS LIFE
TO EARLY DETECTION,
THE RIGHT PRESCRIPTION,

AND A LITTLE WHITE RAT.

HUMANE AND ETHICAL TREATMENT.

It is our responsibility to treat our animals with compassion.

Because they are living, feeling creatures and it's the right thing to do.

Because their health may impact the quality of biomedical research.

Because lives may depend on it.

CHARLES RIVER
LABORATORIES

1.877.CRIVER.1 • www.criver.com