

Raleigh at-a-glance

With facilities located throughout North America, Charles River can provide continual research support, regardless of location. Our core programs, which include Biosecurity, International Genetic Standardization (IGS), Animal Welfare, and Model Quality, ensure animal models of superior health and genetic status so your research results are reliable and consistent. Through the hard work of its employees, our Raleigh location offers a variety of different models and services, to support your research programs.

Background

- Constructed by Charles River in 1984
- Situated on 30 acres

Production Facility

- 13 barrier rooms
- 28,800 square feet of production space
- 2,400 square-foot surgical suite
- AAALAC accredited

Staff

- Approximately 145 employees
- Oversight Team
 - Animal Welfare
 - Biosecurity
 - Veterinary Professional Services

Animal Models

- Outbred Rats
 - CD®
 - CD® Hairless
 - Long-Evans (L/E)
 - Wistar
 - Wistar Han

Animal Models (continued)

- Inbred Mice
 - BALB/c
 - C3H
 - C57BL/6
 - DBA/2
- Outbred Mice
 - CD-1®
- Hybrid Mice
 - B6C3F1
 - B6D2F1
 - CB6F1
 - CD2F1

Disease Models

- Inbred Rats
 - Goto-Kakizaki (GK)
- Outbred Rats
 - Zucker

Preconditioning Services

- Surgical Services
 - Vascular Catheterization
 - Non-vascular Catheterization
 - Soft Tissue Procedures
 - Neurological Procedures
 - Cardiovascular Procedures
 - Device Implants
 - Surgical Support
- Supplemental Services
 - Pre-ID™ Services
 - Pre-Screening Services
 - Pre-Dosing/Pre-Injection Services
- Aging and Feeding Studies
- Biospecimens

For updated stocks and strains, please email us at askcharlesriver@crl.com